John White reports on Blues Net:

- New Masthead, issue is 16 pages,
- There will now be three running articles:
  1. Blues Musician
  2. Blues Club
  3. Memories

Extra copies will be used to distribute at events this summer. Also used to solicit ad participation.

June 10th is article and ad submission deadline for the next issue. Advertisers will be added to the Data Base as non-members.

Mike Carlson distributes financial review. $27.00 increase YTD.

Glenn gives membership report. –

- 20-25% finished updating membership in the Data Base.
- In process of producing Tri-Fold Flier to solicit new members.
- IBC competition needs to be updated with competing band information on the web site.
- IBC Competition will be at Club 316 on June 3rd before the Jam.
- Glenn asked for information from the board to update the web concerning events and radio shows.

Walt discussed Jam Policy regarding attendance by minors. It is as follows:

1. Must be accompanied by someone over 25
2. Cannot buy anything over the bar.

Walt made up a notice with these rules that will be handed out to all minors attending the Jam.

Barry made a motion to make all the Jams smoke free. Board passed a unanimous resolution that the 1st and 3rd Sundays of each month will be smoke free. (Glenn to put notice on the Web site.)

John proposed that the board set a yearly agenda. Ideas to be solicited by email from each board member.

Next meeting to be May22nd at the Macungie Pub at 7:00pm. Doc motions to close seconded by John & Barry @ 5:21pm.
